Today Thou hast appeared to the universe, and Thy light, O Lord, has shown on us who with understanding praise Thee. Thou hast come and revealed Thyself, O Light unapproachable.

Prokeimenon

TONE 1 (Sunday After): Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us / as we have set our hope on Thee.

v: Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous! Praise befits the just!

Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to Ephesians 4:7 – 13

Brethren: But to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift.

Therefore He says:

*“When He ascended on high,
He led captivity captive,
And gave gifts to men.”*

(Now this, “He ascended” – what does it mean but that He also first descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is also the One who ascended far above all the heavens, that He might fill all things.) And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

Alleluia

v: I will sing of Thy mercies, O Lord forever; with my mouth I will proclaim Thy truth from generation to generation.

v: For Thou hast said: ‘Mercy will be established forever; Thy truth will be prepared in the heavens.

The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew 4:12-17

Gospel

Now when Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, He departed to Galilee. And leaving Nazareth, He came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet saying:

*“The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles:
The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light,
And upon those who sat in the region and shadow of death
Light has dawned.”*

From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

“The Holy Ghost accomplishes all wonders and miracles. By the same Spirit power is given to one, and to another works of power. You have only to speak with faith, and need have no anxiety as to the fulfilment of the word; the Holy Ghost will care for this. Believe firmly that you always think, feel, speak, move, and act in God – so to say, in His bosom: “Dwelleth in Me and I in him (St. John 6:56).” He has enclosed you upon all sides; He penetrates and knows you. “Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid Thine hand upon me (Psalm 139),” says the holy prophet and king David. The Mother of God, all the holy angels and all the saints are also in God. What is, therefore, nearer, who can, therefore, be more closely associated with believing Christians than the angels and saints? Therefore, call upon God Himself, the Lord of everything, as well as upon His saints, with faith, hope and love, asking them to intercede before God for you; ask the angels and saints to pray to God for you as you would ask living persons anything for yourself – standing face to face with them, firmly believing that they too stand face to face with your heart. Always think that you are accursed, poor, needy, blind and naked without God, that God is everything to you: He is your righteousness, your sanctification, your riches, your raiment, your life, your breath – everything. The body and the Blood”

"of Christ are pre-eminently body and blood, because in each smallest particle of the Body and the Blood rests the entire Christ-God, filling every part. It is not so in the human body. In the Body and the Blood of Christ every particle, every drop is Christ entire, ever indivisible, One and the Same. What is mercy? Mercy is to love our enemies, to bless those who curse us, to do good to those who hate us, who do us harm, who drive us away, to defend those who are persecuted, and so on." My Life in Christ - St. John of Kronstadt
