Alleluia

Let us come before His face with thanksgiving: let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise!

"Jesus Christ, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, is an unfathomable abyss of love to men. In this abyss of mercy plenteousness of mercy for all will be found, only turn to God with Faith, Hope, and hearty contrition for your iniquities and your offences against the Lord, our Master and Benefactor. God is nearer to us than any man at every time. He is nearer to me than my raiment, nearer than the air or light, nearer than my wife, father, mother, daughter, son, or friend. I live in Him, soul and body. I breathe in Him, think in Him, feel, consider, intend, speak, undertake, work in Him. "For in Him we live, and move, and have our being (Acts 17:29)." "For it is God which worketh in you bot to will and to do of His good pleasure (Philippians 2:13)." Therefore we must always see God before us at our right hand, we must be strong, and in order not to sin we must so place ourselves that nothing could thrust God from our thoughts and hearts, that nothing could hide Him from us – no undue partiality for food, drink, money, dress, house and its furniture, nor for any person – that no worldly distractions and pastimes could deprive us of our Most-sweet, Most-beloved Lord, but that we may every hour and every minute belong to Him, and perpetually be with Him, as He Himself is perpetually with us, as He constantly cares for us and"

“guards us. But when I sin, or when I have any undue partiality for anything, then He is far from me, not in respect to space, for He at all times fills everything, but in respect to my own spiritual withdrawal from Him, to my own indifference towards Him, in respect to His actually depriving me of His grace and His presence in my heart, for then His enem, the Devil, dwells in me.” My Life in Christ – St. John of Kronstadt
